Wyndham Virginia Crossings Hotel & Conference Center Wins Prestigious Four Diamond Award[®]

Sixth Consecutive Year

GLEN ALLEN, VA, December 7, 2009 - The Wyndham Virginia Crossings Hotel & Conference Center has received the prestigious Four Diamond Award[®] for 2010 by the Automobile Association of America (AAA). This is the sixth consecutive year that the 183-room hotel and dedicated conference center has received the Four Diamond Award[®] honor.

According to AAA, the Diamond Rating System is one of the most respected in the lodging and restaurant industries. Earning a Four Diamond rating means that a property has undergone and successfully passed a rigorous evaluation process. Of the approximately 58,000 establishments evaluated by AAA in 2009, only 3.5 percent earned a Four Diamond rating.

“We’re honored to again be recognized for our commitment to excellence in both our hotel and conference center operations,” says Peter Regan, the property’s Director of Sales and Marketing. “Despite a difficult economy, when many hotels are cutting services and amenities, we were able to maintain these commitments to our guests, thanks to our dedicated staff and the advantages we now enjoy as part of Wyndham Hotels and Resorts.” The Wyndham Virginia Crossings Hotel & Conference Center was rebranded as a Wyndham property in 2008.

“Four Diamond hotels and restaurants represent some of the best that the hospitality industry has to offer,” says Martha Mitchell Meade, Manager of Public and Government Affairs for AAA Mid-Atlantic. “These properties are extraordinary in every manner. Lodgings at this level offer guests a wide range of amenities and services, and restaurants feature a distinctive fine dining experience.”

AAA’s Diamond Rating System is the only ratings system that covers all of North America and one of only two that conducts physical, on-site evaluations. It is the only system that uses full-time, professionally trained evaluators to inspect each property using guidelines made available to all establishments. AAA evaluates more properties than any other rating entity. Information about AAA Diamond Ratings and the complete 2010 Diamond Award winners are accessible at AAA.com/News.
