

At Challenge Discovery, teambuilding is what we do. (And all we do.) We help corporate, non-profit and government organizations build stronger teams, more dynamic leaders, more effective communication and a higher level of trust.

Challenge Discovery Programs are designed to:

- Create positive change by transforming groups and individuals into high performance teams and leaders
- Align peoples' understanding and focus with the strategic goals of their organizations
- Inspire participants to achieve things they never thought possible
- Act as a catalyst for change and innovation
- Improve internal communication skills
- Increase productivity

What is POWERPLAY? It's innovative, high-energy team building games that exercise the brain and the play muscle. MBAs build racecars, CEOs work giant puzzles, IT guys lead edgy urban scavenger hunts, and CPAs play in our radical versions of "Survivor" and "The Amazing Race." (And everybody has a great time).

INSPIRED PARTNERSHIPS

Basic improv Skills translate directly to the business world. Whether it's creative thinking, public speaking, fostering group dynamics, acceptance of new ideas, or just learning to communicate more effectively – we can help! The best part is, you will be having a fun time together. No lectures.

Let us help you to create the team environment you want to work in, by playing improv games while learning the crucial skills of communication, acceptance and teamwork.

Let's start thinking outside the cubicle!

Experience real life racing thrills as you ride shotgun in a two-seat V-8 NASCAR-style stock car. Richard Petty Driving Experience offers the most exciting entertainment experiences for groups and corporations of all sizes. Groups ranging from 10 to 1,500 have experienced the thrill and excitement of what makes RPDE "The Ultimate Incentive."

Located in the heart of historic downtown Richmond, the History Center is creating a lively and compelling new center for Richmonders and tourists to discover the diverse stories that come together to tell the history of Richmond.

The mission of the Richmond History Center is to engage, educate, and challenge a diverse audience by collecting, preserving, and interpreting Richmond's history.

A comprehensive program of exhibitions, tours, special events, research opportunities, school programs, and other public programs engage the broadest audience in an ongoing dialogue about the significance and relevance of the city's history.
