The Wyndham Virginia Crossings Hotel & Conference Center
Now Part of Wyndham Hotels and Resorts, Virginia Property Offers
Four Diamond Service – IACC Approved Conference Center, Fine Dining and
Historic Location Near Richmond Virginia

Glen Allen, VA---This Four Diamond and Green Certified hotel and dedicated conference center, is set on 20 beautifully landscaped acres, in Glen Allen, just outside of Richmond, Virginia's capital and a prominent business and vacation hub. Part of Wyndham Hotels and Resorts since 2008, The Wyndham Virginia Crossings Hotel & Conference Center offers meeting planners, business and leisure travelers the many resources and added value of the Wyndham brand, including participation in a range of marketing and guest rewards programs.

The resort consists of 183 guest rooms; 23,000 square feet of meeting space; and a 4,700 square foot ballroom. Virginia Crossings features an array of amenities including: two popular restaurants, a fitness center, business center, a sand volleyball court and outdoor pool. The resort has access to an adjacent, separately owned, 18-hole championship golf course named The Crossings Golf Club.

Originally constructed in 1983 as an office headquarters, the property underwent a complete redevelopment and conversion in 2001 into a state-of-the-art conference and hotel facility. Located at the interchange of Interstates 95 and 295, the resort sits just 12 miles north of the City of Richmond, 20 miles from Richmond International Airport, and 90 miles south of Washington, D.C.

The property includes three Colonial-style buildings linked by covered walkways with charming courtyard and scenic views. The conference center features 23,000 square feet of dedicated meeting space that can host a range of business meetings from exclusive executive retreats to groups of up to 300. All aspects of the conference center – furnishings, lighting and state-of-the-art technology, meet the exacting standards of the International Association of Conference Centers.

The banquet rooms and the hotel's two restaurants, The Glen and The Yellow Tavern, are noted for use of fresh local ingredients, regional specialties and healthy and vegetarian fare. The dining rooms are open to the public and Executive Chef Ivan Coleman creates holiday feasts and a weekly Seafood Buffet and Sunday Brunch.

The Wyndham Virginia Crossings, with its beautiful gardens, scenic views and gracious reception rooms, is a favorite with wedding couples. The hotel recent created an elegantly appointed Bride's Room where brides can rest, freshen up and then make a grand entrance to the reception.

In addition to conference attendees and business travelers, The Wyndham Virginia Crossings Hotel & Conference Center draws leisure travelers who find its convenient setting ideal for weekend getaways, golf, and visits to the historic and recreational attractions of Richmond and the surrounding area. Richmond was the capital of The Confederacy and the hotel is close major battle field sites and museums. In fact, the property is located on the site of the Battle of the Yellow Tavern, where General Jeb Stuart was mortally wounded. Families, Civil War buffs, shoppers, art lovers and honeymooners find this gracious corner of the South a place for all seasons.
